2015 BULLDOG
SUMMER
BASEBALL CAMP
FOR KIDS 6 TO 14

CAMP DIRECTOR STEVE RUZICH

Bulldogs Head Coach Steve Ruzich was an All-American catcher at the College of St. Francis. He graduated in 1985 and was drafted that summer by the Chicago White Sox. Steve had a short stint as a pro catcher before coming to South Suburban College as head baseball coach in 1987. Coach Ruzich has completed his 29th year as head baseball coach and has compiled a record of 1048 wins and 607 losses.

Included in his tenure have been five sectional titles, twelve regional titles and eight regional runner-up finishes as well as sixth and ninth place finishes in the JUCO World Series.

Ruzich's Bulldogs made their last trip to the JUCO World Series in Colorado in 2006. The team finished that season 51-12, including a school record 35 wins in a row. The 2007 and 2008 Bulldogs won regional titles and 40 games each year.

As a player, Steve was named an All-District and All-Area Catcher, as well as being a second team All-American Catcher. His coaching accolades include N4C Coach of the Year, twelve Regional IV Coach of the Year Awards, two College Coach of the Year from the Pitch and Hit Club in Chicago, Great Lakes District Coach of the Year, and Diamond District Coach of the Year.

Being a youth instructor, a head coaching instructor at Midwest Sports Complex, and an Academy Director at Gram Slam have kept Steve busy. Coach Ruzich is particularly known as director and Coordinator of Parent-Child Baseball Camps locally, in which over 1,000 participants have attended.
