SOUTH SUBURBAN COLLEGE IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL–In spite of the State budget situation, South Suburban College will continue to provide quality, affordable education with small class sizes and support services. We are not in danger of closing our doors and encourage you to look no farther than SSC when making your plans for the 2016-2017 academic year.

According to SSC President Don Manning, “South Suburban College will continue to provide workforce credentials to our residents; qualifications that can lead to better paying jobs and a better way of life.”

Summer is a great time to take a few classes and our schedule will be available online at www.ssc.edu beginning Monday, March 7, 2016 with registration opening on Monday, March 21, 2016. Don't wait; classes fill quickly. You will also want to register early for fall to get the courses you want when you want them. Our fall schedule will be available online beginning Monday, April 4, 2016 with registration opening on Monday, April 18, 2016.

Still weighing your options? Come check us out. You may even be eligible to take your first class for free! Details are available online at www.ssc.edu/freeclass.
