WOMEN INSPIRING SUCCESS EVENT COMING TO OAK FOREST CENTER

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL – The Chicagoland Speakers Network (CSN) will hold its Women Inspiring Success Event, WISE 2016, on Thursday, October 13, from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Oak Forest campus of South Suburban College, located at 16333 Kilbourn Avenue in Oak Forest.

"Any woman looking for more success and less stress will love the inspiration and fun planned for WISE 2016," according to CSN President Erin Dubich. The WISE 2016 Conference will feature dynamic speakers on topics supporting personal and professional growth for women of all ages and stages. The Chicagoland Speakers Network, in collaboration with the South Suburban College Business & Career Institute, has presented a wide range of popular women-inspired events over the past several years.

The six scheduled featured presentations are: "Cultivating Radiance Inside & Out," presented by Licensed Dietician Erin Dubich; Professional Organizer Colleen Klimczak on "Strategies for Clarity and Focus;" the "Fundamentals of Financial Management" by Attorney Sonia Coleman; Professional Speaking Coach Lori Klinka, with "Snapshots to Success: Living One Frame at a Time;" "Creativity is a Choice," presented by Artist Starla Snead; and Licensed Massage Therapist Sabrina Schottenhamel will present "Mindful Self-Care: Me TLC."

The Conference fee, which includes a light breakfast and lunch, is $59 until September 30, and $69 thereafter, or at the door. Registration is available on EventBrite at <http://csnwise2016.eventbrite.com>, and through the CSN website at www.chicagolandspeakersnetwork.com. Individuals preferring to pay by check, made payable to Chicagoland Speakers Network, are encouraged to contact Erin Dubich, CSN President, via email at eldubich@gmail.com. The Oak Forest campus of South Suburban College is located at 16333 Kilbourn Avenue in Oak Forest, just off of 167th St and I-57.
