SOUTH SUBURBAN COLLEGE NAMED AS ONE OF THE BEST TWO-YEAR COLLEGES IN ILLINOIS

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL – LearnHowToBecome.org, a leading resource provider for higher education and career information, recently released its list of the Best Colleges in Illinois for 2017 naming South Suburban College in South Holland as one of The Best Two-Year Colleges in Illinois.

To be included on the “Best Colleges in Illinois” list, all schools must be not-for-profit and regionally accredited. Each college is also evaluated on metrics including annual alumni earnings, the opportunity for employment services and academic counseling, the selection of degree programs offered, financial aid availability and graduation rates.

LearnHowtoBecome.org was founded in 2013 to provide data and expert driven information about employment opportunities and the education needed to land the perfect career. Their materials cover a wide range of professions, industries and degree programs, and are designed for people who want to choose, change or advance their careers. They also provide helpful resources and guides that address social issues, financial aid and other special interest in higher education.

South Suburban College is located at 15800 S. State Street, South Holland, IL. Registration is now open for both the Summer and Fall Semesters.
