Adult and Child Camps

The adult/child pitching, catching, hitting and fielding camps at South Suburban College are designed to give adults and children the opportunity to improve their knowledge of baseball skills and techniques. Children will be given expert instruction and will have time to practice and improve their skills through a variety of station drills. Adults will be taught how to use effective teaching methods, how to provide instruction using proper skill techniques, and how to utilize effective drills. The camps give adults and children the opportunity to work together, have fun, and develop talents in a wholesome, supportive environment.

Camp Director

*Steve Ruzich, Head Baseball Coach
South Suburban College*

Coach Ruzich has been the Head Baseball Coach at South Suburban College for the past 32 years and has compiled a winning record of 1150 – 673. Steve not only enjoyed success as a college coach and player, he also established himself as a reputable youth baseball camp director. Steve has directed youth baseball camps for the past 32 years at South Suburban College and taught baseball skills at several other baseball camps throughout the state of Illinois.

2019 Camp Schedule:

Pitching

Saturday, Feb. 16 • 9:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Hitting

Saturday, Feb. 16 • 1:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Sunday, Feb. 17 • 11:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Fielding

Friday, Feb. 15 • 6:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Equipment/Players

Each player should wear gym shoes and sweat/play clothes, and bring their own equipment. Adults should dress casual and wear gym shoes.

The Bulldog baseball players will be on hand to help the youngsters develop and improve their skills. The campers will relate to these outstanding athletes and find them to be bright, intelligent and very personable. During last year's camp, the players' enthusiasm and expertise added to the camp's success.
