"HOME"

11:00am-12:30pm • Lecture Hall C

In the past 200,000 years, humans have upset the balance of planet Earth, a balance established by nearly four billion years of evolution. Through visually stunning footage from over fifty countries, all shot from an aerial perspective, Yann Arthus-Bertrand shows us a view most of us have never seen. He shares with us his sense of awe about our planet and his concern for its health. With this film, Arthus-Bertrand hopes to provide a stepping-stone to further the call to action to take care of our HOME Afterwards, SSC Biology Faculty Eric Myers will give a lecture on sustainability and our future.

Popcorn will be provided.

Sponsored by the Office of Student Life and Leadership

SUSTAINABILITY FAIR

The SSC Green Club is pleased to host a Sustainability Fair.

Visit the college's Atrium from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM and browse the many nonprofit vendors available to talk to you about improving your life, saving money by being "Green," and sustainable careers. There will be an oak sapling giveaway to the first 50 customers, a free reusable bag for the first 30 customers, a book collection, glasses collection, old cellphone collection, plastic bags recycling, clothing and shoes donations, and a free seed giveaway. A recycled art gallery will be displayed in the glass case outside the library.
