Register Now for Non-Credit Classes at South Suburban College

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL– It's not too late to get registered for classes at South Suburban College. SSC's Office of Continuing Education offers a variety of non-credit courses throughout the Spring Semester, with registration open right up to the start of class.

With the wide variety of start dates, class times, course lengths and offerings, students have the flexibility of fitting school around a busy schedule. Some of the programs available include:

- IL-CCL Firearms Training
- Food Service Sanitation
- Introduction to Photography
- Line Dancing, Computers for Seniors
- Learning Windows
- Dialysis Tech Basic Training
- The Road to Wellness
- Real Estate Principles
- And much more.

Classes are starting February 10th and later. For more information about SSC's non-credit classes or to register, please contact the Office of Continuing Education at (708) 596-2000, ext. 2231, or visit www.ssc.edu. SSC is located at 15800 South State Street, South Holland, Illinois.
