Cannabis Classes among South Suburban College's Summer Non-Credit Online Offerings

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL– It's not too late to get registered for classes at South Suburban College. SSC's Office of Continuing Education has scheduled a variety of non-credit courses that will be offered through the college's Virtual Classroom this summer. Registration is open right up to the start of class the week of June 1, 2020.

New to SSC's non-credit schedule are six Cannabis classes including an Introduction to Cannabis, Cooking with Cannabis, Cannabis Law, dispensary information and more. With the wide variety of start course lengths, times and offerings, students have the flexibility of fitting school around a busy schedule. Class topics include:

- Art
- Communications
- Computers
- Food Service Sanitation
- Health & Wellness
- Hospitality
- Law Enforcement
- Pharmacology (Cannabis)
- Psychology
- Real estate

For more information about SSC's non-credit classes or to register, please contact the Office of Continuing Education at noncredit@ssc.edu or visit www.ssc.edu.
