Broken, Healed, Stronger, Better!! Photographs by Tara Gray on display at South Suburban College

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL—The Art & Design Department of South Suburban College is pleased to announce a special guest artist exhibition of photographs entitled Broken, Healed, Stronger, Better!! by Tara Gray in the Photo Four Gallery at South Suburban College from Monday, March 29th through Thursday, May 6th.

Tara Gray is a photographer and CEO of Feel This Moment Photography. Broken, Healed, Stronger, Better!! is a body of work which features the artist's God-sister and the story of her journey to form her own business. Ms. Gray notes that she chose to feature her because "I love helping to allow women to use their voice, to feel beautiful, and to help them feel unstoppable. We make complete art when we unite."

Ms. Gray's photographs are not merely portraits, but go beyond to create compositions with shapes and colors of objects in the background to add more dimensions to their personalities. The artist's God-sister, friends, and family explode from the photographs with color and life. Through skillful use of pose, placement, and color, Ms. Gray indeed unites her subjects in an attitude of power, positivity, and self-confidence.

The SSC Photo Four Gallery is open Monday-Thursday, 9-5 p.m. The galleries are closed on weekends and holidays. An online gallery component and a Zoom gallery lecture will be announced at a later date. The public is welcome to visit art exhibitions and receptions at no charge. Temperature checks, masks and social distancing are required on campus. For more information, please call Amy Babinec at (847) 868-3069 or visit www.ssc.edu/art. SSC is located at 15800 South State Street, South Holland, Illinois.
