Join South Suburban College for Tuesday Talks – Virtual Q&As for Summer Enrollment

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL– South Suburban College (SSC) is hosting Zoom sessions throughout May called Tuesday Talks to assist prospective students with all of their questions regarding reverse transfer and enrollment for the 2022 Summer Semester. Tuesday Talks will be hosted by the SSC Enrollment Services Department every Tuesday during the month of May at 12 noon, with Zoom access available from www.ssc.edu/info. The Tuesday Talks are designed for any students who are considering attending college for the first time, reverse transferring from a four-year school, or who simply have general questions about the enrollment and registration process.

SSC continues its efforts to provide flexibility to college degree seekers interrupted by the pandemic with flexible class delivery options. Summer registration is now in progress and class schedules, registration services and a new “live chat” with staff are all available online from ssc.edu. Summer classes begin June 6, 2022.

In addition to the upcoming Tuesday Talks, prospective students may access a separate live chat function from ssc.edu, call (708) 210-5718 or email AdmissionsQuestions@ssc.edu for ongoing assistance.

SSC is a community college located in South Holland, Illinois serving 21 communities including parts of the Chicago Southland and northwest Indiana. SSC provides a variety of support services and leadership opportunities to its students in addition to a wide range of affordable academic programs.
