South Suburban College Offers Various Incentives for Spring 2023 Semester Registration

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL—South Suburban College (SSC) has established various registration incentives for the Spring 2023 Semester. Every student registered on or before Saturday, December 31, 2022, and enrolled by Wednesday, February 1, 2023 will receive a branded SSC bag, t-shirt, lanyard, and a $5 gift certificate to the new vendor in the cafeteria on the Main Campus in South Holland. These students will also be entered to win one of ten prizes, including a free course waiver to be used during the Summer 2023 or Fall 2023 Semester. Other items consist of $300 and $100 vouchers to the SSC Bookstore, also located on the college's Main Campus. All incentives are only available for credit and adult education students.

Registration is currently in progress for the Spring 2023 Semester. SSC has established a plan to allow students to sign up for classes without being dropped for non-payment. The college offers several programs for eligible students, including special tuition rates, tuition-free course waivers, scholarship opportunities, and more than one hundred educational pathways to success.

Students are encouraged to register early to secure their preferred mode of instruction and schedule. SSC continues its efforts to provide affordable and flexible class options for college degree seekers with a wide range of course delivery selections. New and currently enrolled students can choose from SSC's High Five modes of course delivery, including in-person, online, virtual, simulcast and blended delivery methods.

Classes for the Spring 2023 Semester at SSC begin the week of Monday, January 17, 2022. Preferred registration ends on Monday, January 30, 2023, with course options available through Monday, March 20, 2023. SSC's online application, registration services, and class schedule are easily accessible at ssc.edu.
